  - Visiting Assistant Professor of Nutrition
Both the College of Saint Benedict and Saint John’s University occupy the original homelands of the Dakhóta and Anishinaabe peoples. We honor, respect, and acknowledge the Indigenous peoples forcibly removed from this territory, whose connection remains today. St. Benedict’s Monastery and St. John’s Abbey previously operated boarding schools for Native children. Now, students, faculty, and staff are working to repair relationships with our Native Nation neighbors.

- Compare Information Evaluation techniques
- What we've learned
Instructional Technology Day
Version 1: NUTR 110: Understanding Nutrition

- Class made up mostly of non-science majors
- Already analyzing personal diet
  - Needed to find a recipe to help improve their diet
- Librarians presented one 1/2-hour session plus group work time
What did we cover?

- What is a search engine?
- Choosing terms
- Filtering results
- SIFT
- Copyright/plagiarism

How did it go?

- Identification of authority
- Assignment got students thinking critically, but wasn't very in-depth
- Led to a deeper conversation of designing a new assignment to foster more critical information evaluation
Collaborative Assignment Design

- Started with learning objective and topic
  - Topic of Fad Diets
  - Justice themed course
- Brainstormed different ideas for the assignment
- Decided on a case study with 2 library sessions on internet searching and database searching
Version 2: NUTR 125: Concepts of Nutrition Science

- Core class for Nursing & Nutrition majors, class mostly science & pre-health majors
- Case study assignment with a focus on fad diets & food justice
- Librarians each presented one 1-hour session
  - Annie: Internet research
  - Jonathan: Database searching for scholarly articles
What did we cover?

Internet Searching: Annie
- Stayed pretty much the same
- What is a search engine
- Online Verification Skills with Mike Caulfield YouTube video
- SIFT
- Search Tricks

Database Searching: Jonathan
- Primary/Secondary/Tertiary
- Nutrition databases
- TRAP
- Database search tips for diets
How did it go?

- Students were a lot more engaged
- More embedded information literacy goals
- Preliminary assessment
Information Evaluation

SIFT and TRAP
SIFT

- Stop
- Investigate the source
- Find better/other coverage
- Trace claims and quotes to the original source
TRAP

Timeliness (when?)
Reliability (how?)
Authority (who?)
Purpose (why?)
Trap: Timeliness

- Is the information current? Historical? Out of date?
- When was it created or last updated?
tRap: Reliability

- Are the sources cited?
- Can you verify facts in other sources?
- Is the publication peer reviewed?

Article history:
Received 26 June 2017
Accepted 31 August 2017
Available online 5 September 2017
trAp: Authority

- Are the author credentials available?
- Is the author qualified to write on the topic?
- Is the article cited by other authors?
traP: Purpose

- Is the information fact, opinion, or propaganda?
- Is there a discernable bias or agenda?
- Biases could be political, ideological, cultural, religious, institutional, or personal.
- Was there a conflict of interest?
When to use?

SIFT
- Intended for internet research
- A process
- Both investigate purpose and address authority but in slightly different ways

TRAP
- Intended for scholarly sources
- A more specific checklist
- Assumes some level of vetting
- Timeliness of sources addressed
Our Next Steps

- We’re now implementing the fad diet assignment in the NUTR 110 course this semester
- Liaison reorganization
- Outreach to other instructors?
