

5-26-2020

Dreamers X Doers

Courtney Horstman

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.csbsju.edu/obsculta>

Part of the Religious Education Commons

ISSN: 2472-2596 (print)

ISSN: 2472-260X (online)

---

Recommended Citation

Horstman, Courtney. 2020. Dreamers X Doers. Obsculta 13, (1) : 46-46.
<https://digitalcommons.csbsju.edu/obsculta/vol13/iss1/6>.

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by DigitalCommons@CSB/SJU. It has been accepted for inclusion in Obsculta by an authorized administrator of DigitalCommons@CSB/SJU. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@csbsju.edu.

ABSTRACT:

The primary themes within Dreamers X Doers revolve around the need for social justice and the lack of collaboration between those who are doers and those who only dream of an ideal world. As a dreamer, I emphasize the desire for fellow dreamers to rise up and bring about the change they know needs to happen. I address the tendency of dreamers to live inside their own minds and to procrastinate, but I also make known the capacity for these dreamers to take part in the efforts towards social change that they feel so passionately about.

All in all, dreamers and doers are not that different from one another. In fact, they need each other.

Dreamers X Doers

by Courtney Horstman

We stare out our windows
With light in our eyes

We write stories in our minds
And take pictures with our memories

Our imaginations are a symphony
Others who listen will hear

We treasure potential
And find beauty between the lines

We see emotion in color
And feel it deeper than Truth

We are the dreamers
Who see the damage done

In a world where doers
Don't know we're done waiting

To join their revival
And bring dreams to life

We are the hopeful
Who hope to stop procrastinating

Who need a little push
To pull us out of our heads

We are the dreamers
Who forgot we could be doers too.

