Contributor Biographies

DALE LAUNDEVERILLE, OSB
Dale Launderville is a monk of Saint John’s Abbey and Professor of Theology at the School of Theology and Seminary, and was formerly Dean of the School. He earned his Bachelor of Arts from Saint John’s University in 1973 and his Master of Divinity in 1979 before earning a Master of Arts in 1982 and Doctor of Philosophy in 1987 from The Catholic University of America. His areas of teaching and research include Old Testament/Hebrew Bible, especially the Book of Ezekiel and Book of Numbers, and History of Biblical Interpretation.

ANISABEL PALMA
Anisabel Palma is pursuing a Master of Divinity and a Certificate of Spiritual Direction at Saint John’s School of Theology and Seminary. Originally from México, she serves as Director of Hispanic Ministry for the Diocese of New Ulm. Her commitment to married life, motherhood, and her experience as an immigrant shape her writings and ministry.

PATRICK RUSSELL
Patrick Russell has lived in multiple states. He earned a Bachelor of Arts in Missions from Southern Nazarene University, a Master of Divinity from Olivet Nazarene University, and a Master of Arts in Orthodox Studies from Saint Vladimir’s Orthodox Theological Seminary before attending Saint John’s School of Theology and Seminary to pursue the Master of Theology. In his spare time he enjoys conversations about Eastern Orthodox theology or anything having to do with the Inklings.

ANDRENIQUE D. ROLLE
Andrenique D Rolle grew up on the islands of Andros and New Providence in the Bahamas. She attended the College of Saint Benedict, where she completed her Bachelor of Arts in Theology in the Spring of 2023. She is now at the Saint John’s School of Theology and Seminary pursuing her theological interests. Andrenique enjoys cooking, creating media for Bible Study Sessions, traveling, and trying new things.
PAULINUS DAELI, OSC
Paulinus Daeli hails from Nias Barat, Indonesia, his birthplace. He is a seminarian for the Ordo Sanctae Crucis. In 2020, he obtained his Bachelor of Arts in Philosophy from Universitas Katolik Parahyangan, Bandung, Indonesia. He is presently working towards his Master of Arts in Theology at Saint John’s School of Theology and Seminary in Collegeville, Minnesota. In addition to his passion for theology, he takes pleasure in singing choral music and editing photos.

RACHEL HENRY
Rachel Henry is a student in the Master of Arts in Ministry who hopes to become a chaplain. She grew up in Colorado and lived for many years in California, where she worked in communications. She likes to write, eat chocolate, play soccer, and spend time in nature and with people.

JACQUELINE LEITER, OSB
Jacqueline Leiter grew up in Saint Paul, Minnesota and is a Benedictine sister from Saint Paul’s Monastery. She taught English as a Second Language to immigrants and learned many things from her young students. She enjoys reflecting on and writing about Benedictine and scriptural values and their current application in ministry, relationships, and spirituality. She also creates art as a visual metaphor to express and invite theological reflection. She is currently studying theology at the Saint John’s School of Theology and Seminary.

KRISTYN DEMERS
Kristyn Demers was born in New Hampshire. She received her Bachelor of Arts in Elementary Education with a minor in Theology in the spring of 2022 from Saint Anslem College in Manchester, New Hampshire. She then completed a year of volunteering with the Franciscan Volunteer Ministry in Durham, NC. She is currently a first-year Master of Divinity candidate and is part of the Conversatio: Creating a Culture of Encounter program at Saint John’s School of Theology and Seminary.

GILBERT PEREZ
Gilbert Perez was born in Houston, Texas. He earned his Bachelor of Arts in theology with a minor in philosophy from Saint John’s University and is currently attending the School of Theology for the Master in Divinity in Lay Ministry. Gilbert also enjoys teaching theology to others, as well as hiking, cooking, and philosophy.
PHOEBE CARSTENS
Phoebe Carstens is from San Antonio, Texas, and is currently studying for the Master of Divinity program at Saint John’s School of Theology and Seminary. After graduating from Loyola University Chicago with degrees in Theology and Mathematics, they spent a year working on an organic farm. Now, in addition to studying, they work with undergraduate students at the campus ministry office at Saint John’s University and are a regular contributor for New Ways Ministry. They are passionate about eco-spirituality, waterfowl appreciation, and LGBTQ+ ministry.

SCOTT COOPER
Scott Cooper was born in Lima, Ohio. He earned a Master of Arts in Theology in 2017 and a Master of Arts in Church Ministries in 2021 from Saint Mary’s Ecumenical Institute in Baltimore. He is currently a candidate for the Doctor of Philosophy in instructional leadership for changing populations at Notre Dame of Maryland University and is at Saint John’s University School of Theology and Seminary as a sabbatical participant. He is Professor of World Languages at Anne Arundel Community College in Arnold, Maryland.

ANDREA FREY
Andrea Frey is a candidate for the Master of Arts in Theology and holds a Bachelor of Music from Butler University in Indianapolis, Indiana. She and her family live near Indianapolis where she serves as the Director of Music and Liturgy for a suburban parish.

ERIC KALIMBIRIRO, OSC
Eric Kalimbiriro is from the Democratic Republic of the Congo. He attended the Lycee Martyrs Baganda Catholic school of Ciheroano and then the Crosier’s University of Mulo in North Kivu. He completed a Bachelor of Philosophy in the summer of 2021. He is now studying theology, concentrating in Systematic Theology, at Saint John’s School of Theology and Seminary in Collegeville, Minnesota. Outside of his studies, he enjoys exploring the ideas and work of the Frankfurt School of Critical Theory.

SARAH SKROVE
Sarah Skrove was raised in Hutchinson, Minnesota. She is a senior at the College of Saint Benedict and is pursuing her Bachelor of Arts in theology. After graduation, she plans to attend the Boston College Clough School of Theology and Ministry to pursue a Master of Divinity. She also enjoys reading, volunteering, learning to cook, and making new friends.
KATHLEEN A. CAHALAN
Kathleen A. Cahalan is professor of practical theology at Saint John’s University School of Theology and Seminary and director of the Collegeville Institute Seminars, a collaborative, interdisciplinary, and ecumenical research project that includes seminars on vocation across the lifespan, vocation and faith in the professions, and interfaith perspectives on vocation.

MAGGIE NADALIN
Maggie Nadalin is a 2023 graduate of the Saint John’s School of Theology and Seminary, having earned a Master in Theological Studies, concentrating in Liturgy. She resides in Cleveland, Ohio.

EMILY HEIDICK
Emily Heidick grew up in Minnesota before completing her Bachelor of Arts in Elementary Education and Master of Arts in Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages at Wheaton College. She was a third grade and English Learner teacher in Chicago before furthering her theological education in the Master of Theological Studies program. She is also the digital communications graduate assistant at Liturgical Press.

MELISSA TOVAR-GUERRERO
Melissa Tovar-Guerrero was born in Bogotá, Colombia. She has her Bachelor of Arts in Literary Studies and is an author, journalist, and has written and published two books: Retorno a Dorlebo, which is a collection of fantastic stories, and Los desprendimientos, her first publication, in which Melissa explores the ancient Japanese tradition of voluntary disappearances, known as jōhatsu. She is currently studying at Saint John’s School of Theology and Seminary for the Master in Theological Studies.

HANNAH MIERS
Hannah Miers was born in Rochester, Minnesota but she currently lives in Stewartville, Minnesota. She attended the College of Saint Benedict and Saint John’s University, earning her Bachelor of Arts in Theology in the spring of 2022. She is currently studying at the School of Theology and Seminary for the Master of Divinity in Lay Ministry. When she is not studying theology, Hannah really loves to go hiking, read romance and murder mysteries, and watch old classics and musicals!
CARRIE ONEIL-SMITH
Carrie ONeil-Smith is a candidate for Master of Arts in Theology at Saint John’s School of Theology and Seminary. She lives in Massachusetts with her husband of 32 years; together they have an adult son and daughter. Carrie enjoys sailing and gardening and is a Lay Associate of Mount Saint Mary’s Abbey in Wrentham, Massachusetts. Upon her graduation Carrie plans to work in spiritual care in a hospital setting.

HANG GEUM AUGUSTINE, OSB
Hang Geum Augustine is currently a non-degree seeking student at Saint John’s School of Theology and Seminary and is a monk of Saint John’s Abbey. Augustine previously attended the School of Theology, completing his Master of Arts in Liturgical Music with concentrations in vocal performance and choral conducting. He also holds multiple Bachelor of Arts degrees in Law, Political Science and Economics, a Master of Laws, and a Juris Doctorate.

MARY L. PARKS
Mary L. Parks is an Master of Divinity candidate at Saint John’s School of Theology and Seminary. She is an oblate of Saint Benedict and currently serves as Program Associate for Saint Mary’s Clinical Pastoral Education Center in Duluth, Minnesota.